

Public Law 665 - August 26, 1954 - TITLE IV - OTHER PROGRAMS

Sec. 401. Special Fund. --Of the funds made available under this Act, not to exceed $150,000,000 may be used in any fiscal year, without regard to the requirements of this Act or any other Act for which funds are authorized by this Act, in furtherance of any of the purposes of such Acts, when the President determines that such use is important to the security of the United States. Not to exceed $100,000,000 of the funds available under this section may be expended for any selected persons who are residing in or escapees from the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Albania, Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia or the Communist-dominated or Communist-occupied areas of Germany and Austria, or any Communist-dominated or Communist-occupied areas of Asia and any other countries absorbed by the Soviet Union, either to form such persons into elements of the military forces supporting the North Atlantic Treaty Organization or for other purposes, when the President determines that such assistance will contribute to the defense of the North Atlantic area or to the security of the United States. Certification by the President that he has expended amounts under this section not in excess of $50,000,000, and that it is inadvisable to specify the nature of such expenditures, shall be deemed a sufficient voucher for such amounts. Not more than $20,000,000, of the funds available under this section may be allocated to any one nation in any fiscal year.

68 Stat. 832.
22 USC 1751 note. Unobligated balances of funds heretofore made available under authority of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, and available as of June 30, 1960, are, except as otherwise provided, hereby continued available for the fiscal year 1961, for the same general purposes for which appropriated.

CORPORATION

61 Stat. 584.
31 USC 849. The Development Loan Fund is hereby authorized to make such expenditures within the limits of funds available to it, and in accord with law, and to make such contracts and commitments without regard to fiscal year limitations as provided in section 104 of the Government Corporation Control Act, as amended, as may be necessary in carrying out the programs set forth in the budget for the current fiscal year for such corporation, except as hereinafter provided:

DEVELOPMENT LOAN FUND

For advances to the Development Loan Fund as authorized by section 203, $550,000,000, to remain available until expended.

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES, DEVELOPMENT LOAN FUND

Not to exceed $1,800,000 of the funds of the Development Loan Fund shall be available during the current fiscal year for administrative expenses of the Fund covering the categories set forth in the current fiscal year budget estimates for such expenses.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. (a) Within sixty days following the date of enactment of this Act, the President shall transmit to the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives a report containing a full and complete revision of the data presented to such committees in justification of appropriations requested for the mutual security program for the fiscal year 1961, showing any changes in such program approved subsequent to such presentation, including changes necessary to reflect actual appropriations for the program.

(b) Within thirty days following the approval of any change in the mutual security program for the fiscal year 1961, which will result in furnishing assistance of a kind, for a purpose, in an area, or in an amount, different from that described in the report transmitted under subsection (a), and which involves $1,000,000 or more, or 5 per centum of the amount appropriated under any paragraph of this title whichever is the lesser, the President shall transmit to the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives a full and complete report of such change and the reasons therefor.

(c) This section shall not apply to programs authorized by section 451 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended. Ante, p. 138.
22 USC 1951.

(d) None of the funds herein appropriated shall be used to carry out any provision of chapter II, III, or IV of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, in any country or with respect to any project or activity, after the expiration of the thirty-five day period which begins on the date the General Accounting Office or any committee of the Congress, or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof, charged with considering mutual security legislation, appropriations, or expenditures, has delivered to the office of the head of any department or agency carrying out such provision, a written request that it be furnished any document, paper, communication, audit, review, finding, recommendation, report, or other material in its custody or control relating to the administration of such provision in such country or with respect to such project or activity, unless and until there has been furnished to the General Accounting Office, or to such committee or subcommittee, as the case may be, (1) the document, paper, communication, audit, review, finding, recommendation, report or other material so requested, or (2) a certification by the President that he has forbidden the furnishing thereof pursuant to such request, and his reason for so doing. 72 Stat. 270.
22 USC 1841,
1951, 1750.

SEC. 102. None of the funds herein appropriated for Defense Support, the Development Loan Fund, Special Assistance, or the President's Special Authority and Contingency Fund shall be used to finance the construction of any new flood control, reclamation, or other water or related land resource project or program which has not met the standards and criteria used in determining the feasibility of flood control, reclamation and other water and related land resource programs and projects proposed for construction within the United States of America as per circular A-47 of the Bureau of the Budget, dated December 31, 1952. Sup-Flood control projects.

SEC. 103. Obligations made from funds herein appropriated for engineering and architectural fees and services to any individual or group of engineering and architectural firms on any one project in excess of $25,000 shall be reported to the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and House of Representatives at least twice annually. Engineering fees.
Reports to Congress.

- Restriction. SEC. 104. Except for the appropriations entitled "President's special authority and contingency fund" and "Development Loan Fund", not more than 20 per centum of any appropriation item made available by this title shall be obligated and/or reserved during the last month of availability.
- Pensions, annuities, etc. SEC. 105. None of the funds herein appropriated nor any of the counterpart funds generated as a result of assistance hereunder or any prior Act shall be used to pay pensions, annuities, retirement pay or adjusted service compensation for any persons heretofore or hereafter serving in the armed forces of any recipient country.
- SEC. 106. None of the funds herein appropriated shall be used to finance any of the activities under the Investment Incentive Fund Program.
- Seating of Communist China in U. N., opposition. SEC. 107. The Congress hereby reiterates its opposition to the seating in the United Nations of the Communist China regime as the representative of China, and it is hereby declared to be the continuing sense of the Congress that the Communist regime in China has not demonstrated its willingness to fulfill the obligations contained in the Charter of the United Nations and should not be recognized to represent China in the United Nations. In the event of the seating of representatives of the Chinese Communist regime in the Security Council or General Assembly of the United Nations, the President is requested to inform the Congress insofar as is compatible with the requirements of national security, of the implications of this action upon the foreign policy of the United States and our foreign relationships, including that created by membership in the United Nations, together with any recommendations which he may have with respect to the matter.
- American citizens, discrimination. SEC. 108. It is the sense of Congress that any attempt by foreign nations to create distinctions because of their race or religion among American citizens in the granting of personal or commercial access or any other rights otherwise available to United States citizens generally is repugnant to our principles; and in all negotiations between the United States and any foreign state arising as a result of funds appropriated under this title these principles shall be applied as the President may determine.
- Availability of funds and authority. SEC. 109. The appropriations and authority with respect thereto in this Act shall be available from July 1, 1960, for the purposes provided in such appropriations and authority. All obligations incurred during the period between June 30, 1960, and the date of enactment of this Act in anticipation of such appropriations and authority are hereby ratified and confirmed if in accordance with the terms thereof.
- Restriction. SEC. 110. None of the funds provided in this title shall be available for assistance to any country, the government of which sells arms, ammunition, or implements of war to the Castro regime, or which furnishes, by grant or loan, any military or economic aid to that regime, unless the President determines that the withholding of such assistance to such country would be contrary to the national interest.
- Restriction. SEC. 111. None of the funds provided in this title shall be available for assistance to any country the government of which sells arms, ammunition, or implements of war to any country in Latin America being subjected to economic or diplomatic sanctions by the Organization of American States, unless the President determines that the withholding of such assistance to such country would be contrary to the national interest.

TITLE II—DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY—CIVIL FUNCTIONS

RYUKYU ISLANDS, ADMINISTRATION

For expenses, not otherwise provided for, necessary to meet the responsibilities and obligations of the United States in connection with the government of the Ryukyu Islands, including, subject to such authorizations and limitations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Army, tuition, travel expenses, and fees incident to instruction in the United States or elsewhere of such persons as may be required to carry out the provisions of this appropriation; travel expenses and transportation; services as authorized by section 15 of the Act of August 2, 1946 (5 U.S.C. 55a), of individuals not to exceed ten in number; not to exceed $3,000 for contingencies for the High Commissioner, to be expended in his discretion; translation rights, photographic work, educational exhibits, and dissemination of information, including preview and review expenses incident thereto; hire of passenger motor vehicles and aircraft; purchase of three passenger motor vehicles for replacement only; construction, repair, and maintenance of buildings, utilities, facilities, and appurtenances; and such supplies, commodities, and equipment as may be essential to carry out the purposes of this appropriation; $6,000,000, of which not to exceed $1,633,000 shall be available for administrative and information expenses: Provided, That the general provisions of the Appropriation Act for the current fiscal year for the military functions of the Department of the Army shall apply to expenditures made from this appropriation: Provided further, That expenditures from this appropriation may be made outside continental United States when necessary to carry out its purposes, without regard to sections 355, 3648, and 3734, Revised Statutes, as amended, section 4774(d) of title 10, United States Code, civil service or classification laws, or provisions of law prohibiting payment of any person not a citizen of the United States: Provided further, That expenditures may be made hereunder for the purposes of economic rehabilitation in the Ryukyu Islands in such manner as to be consistent with the general objectives of titles II and III of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, and in the manner authorized by sections 505(a) and 522(e) thereof: Provided further, That funds appropriated hereunder may be used, insofar as practicable, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Army to pay ocean transportation charges from United States ports, including territorial ports, to ports in the Ryukyus for the movement of supplies donated to, or purchased by, United States voluntary nonprofit relief agencies registered with and recommended by the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid or of relief packages consigned to individuals residing in such areas: Provided further, That under the rules and regulations to be prescribed, the Secretary of the Army shall fix and pay a uniform rate per pound for the ocean transportation of all relief packages of food or other general classification of commodities shipped to the Ryukyus regardless of methods of shipment and higher rates charged by particular agencies of transportation, but this proviso shall not apply to shipments made by individuals to individuals: Provided further, That the President may transfer to any other department or agency any function or functions provided for under this appropriation, and there shall be transferred to any such department or agency without reimbursement and without regard to the appropriation from which procured, such property as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine to relate primarily to any function or functions so transferred.

TITLE III—EXPORT-IMPORT BANK OF WASHINGTON

61 Stat. 584.
31 USC 849.

The Export-Import Bank of Washington is hereby authorized to make such expenditures within the limits of funds and borrowing authority available to such corporation, and in accord with law, and to make such contracts and commitments without regard to fiscal year limitations as provided by section 104 of the Government Corporation Control Act, as amended, as may be necessary in carrying out the programs set forth in the budget for the current fiscal year for such corporation, except as hereinafter provided:

LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES, EXPORT-IMPORT BANK OF WASHINGTON

60 Stat. 810.

68 Stat. 454.
7 USC 1691
note.

Not to exceed $2,675,000 (to be computed on an accrual basis) of the funds of the Export-Import Bank of Washington shall be available during the current fiscal year for administrative expenses of the Bank, including services as authorized by section 15 of the Act of August 2, 1946 (5 U.S.C. 55a) at rates not to exceed $75 per diem for individuals, purchase of one passenger motor vehicle (for replacement only) at not to exceed $6,250, and not to exceed $9,000 for entertainment allowances for members of the Board of Directors; and, in addition, not to exceed the equivalent of $200,000 of the aggregate amount of foreign currencies made available to the Export-Import Bank for loans pursuant to the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended, shall be available during the current fiscal year for expenses incurred by the Export-Import Bank incident to such loans: Provided, That fees or dues to international organizations of credit institutions engaged in financing foreign trade and necessary expenses (including special services performed on a contract or fee basis, but not including other personal services) in connection with the acquisition, operation, maintenance, improvement, or disposition of any real or personal property belonging to the Bank or in which it has an interest, including expenses of collections of pledged collateral, or the investigation or appraisal of any property in respect to which an application for a loan has been made, shall be considered as nonadministrative expenses for the purposes hereof.

TITLE IV

Short title.

CHAPTER III—CONTINGENCY FUND

PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL AUTHORITY AND CONTINGENCY FUND

SEC. 301. The section of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, redesignated by paragraph (12) (B) of section 501 of this Act as section 451 of chapter III of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, which relates to the President's special authority, is amended as follows:

(a) Insert "AND CONTINGENCY FUND" after "AUTHORITY" in the heading of this section.

(b) Subsection (a) is amended as follows:

(1) In the first sentence, insert "for use" after "made available"; strike out "such use by section 400 (a) of this Act" and substitute "use under this subsection by subsection (b) of this section"; strike out "pursuant to authorizations contained in" and substitute "for use under"; and

(2) In the second and last sentence strike out "section" both times it appears and substitute "subsection".

(c) Redesignate subsection (b) as subsection (c), and insert the following new subsection (b):

"(b) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the President for the fiscal year 1959 not to exceed $155,000,000 for assistance authorized by this Act, other than by title II of chapter II, in accordance with the provisions of this Act applicable to the furnishing of such assistance. $100,000,000 of the funds authorized to be appropriated pursuant to this subsection for any fiscal year may be used in such year in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of this section." Appropriation.

(d) In the last sentence of subsection (c), insert "subsection (a) of" after "under".

CHAPTER IV—GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 401. The chapter designated by paragraph (16) of section 501 of this Act as chapter IV of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, which relates to general and administrative provisions, is further amended as follows:

22 USC 1754.

(a) Section 502, which relates to use of foreign currencies by committees of the Congress, is amended by striking out the proviso in subsection (b) and inserting the following: “: Provided, That each member or employee of any such committee shall make, to the chairman of such committee in accordance with regulations prescribed by such committee, an itemized report showing the amounts and dollar equivalent values of each such foreign currency expended, together with the purposes of the expenditure, including lodging, meals, transportation, and other purposes. Within the first sixty days that Congress is in session in each calendar year, the chairman of each such committee shall consolidate the reports of each member and employee of the committee and forward said consolidated report, showing the total itemized expenditures of the committee and each subcommittee thereof during the preceding calendar year, to the Committee on House Administration of the House of Representatives (if the committee be a committee of the House of Representatives or a joint committee whose funds are disbursed by the Clerk of the House) or to the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate (if the committee be a Senate committee or a joint committee whose funds are disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate). Each such report submitted by each committee shall be published in the Congressional Record within ten legislative days after receipt by the Committee on House Administration of the House or the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate.”

72 Stat. 268.

72 Stat. 269.

22 USC 1761.

(b) Section 509, which relates to shipping on United States vessels, is amended by adding the following new sentence at the end thereof: “Sales of fresh fruit and the products thereof under this Act shall be exempt from the requirements of the cargo preference laws (Public Resolution 17, Seventy-third Congress, and section 901 (b) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended).”

68 Stat 832.

15 USC 616a;

46 USC 1241.

22 USC 1762.

22 USC 1766a.

(c) Section 510, which relates to purchase of commodities, is amended by striking out “title II or” in the first sentence.

(d) Add the following new sections immediately after section 515:

“SEC. 516. PROHIBITION AGAINST DEBT RETIREMENT.—None of the funds made available under this Act nor any of the counterpart funds generated as a result of assistance under this Act or any other Act shall be used to make payments on account of the principal or interest on any debt of any foreign government or on any loan made to such government by any other foreign government; nor shall any of these funds be expended for any purpose for which funds have been withdrawn by any recipient country to make payment on such debts: Provided, That to the extent that funds have been borrowed by any foreign government in order to make a deposit of counterpart and such deposit is in excess of the amount that would be required to be deposited pursuant to the formula prescribed by section 142 (b) of this Act, such counterpart may be used in such country for any agreed purpose consistent with the provisions of this Act.

22 USC 1852.

“SEC. 517. COMPLETION OF PLANS AND COST ESTIMATES.—After June 30, 1958, no agreement or grant which constitutes an obligation of the United States in excess of $100,000 under section 1311 of the Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1955, shall be made for any assistance authorized under title I or III (except section 306) of chapter II, or section 400 (a)— 22 USC 1896, 1920.

“(1) if such agreement or grant requires substantive technical or financial planning, until engineering, financial, and other plans necessary to carry out such assistance, and a reasonably firm estimate of the cost to the United States of providing such assistance, have been completed; and

“(2) if such agreement or grant requires legislative action within the recipient country, unless such legislative action may reasonably be anticipated to be completed within one year from the date the agreement or grant is made.

This section shall not apply to any assistance furnished for the sole purpose of preparation of engineering, financial, and other plans.”

(e) Amend section 527, which relates to the employment of personnel, by adding the following new subsection, such amendment to take effect nine months after the date of enactment of this Act: 68 Stat. 857. 22 USC 1787.

“(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 712, or any other law containing similar authority, officers and employees of the United States performing functions under this Act shall not accept from any foreign nation any compensation or other benefits. Arrangements may be made by the President with such nations for reimbursement to the United States or other sharing of the cost of performing such functions.” 72 Stat. 269. 72 Stat. 270.

(f) Section 537, which relates to provisions on uses of funds, is amended as follows: in subsection (a) (1), strike out “for the fiscal year 1958”; in subsection (c), strike out “Not to exceed $18,000,000” and substitute “Notwithstanding the provisions of section 406 (a) of Public Law 85-241, not to exceed $26,000,000”, and add the following new clause before the period: “, and not to exceed $2,750,000 of funds made available for assistance in other countries under this Act may be used (in addition to funds available for such use under other authorities in this Act) for construction or acquisition of such facilities for such purposes elsewhere”; and add the following new subsection: 71 Stat. 364. 22 USC 1797. 71 Stat. 556. 42 USC 15941. 71 Stat. 556.

“(f) During the annual presentation to the Congress of requests for authorizations and appropriations under this Act, a detailed explanation of the method by which the proposed programs for each country have been arrived at shall be submitted, including all significant factors considered in arriving at such proposed programs.”

(g) Amend section 543 (d), which relates to saving provisions, by striking out “Act of 1956 or the Mutual Security Act of 1957” and substituting “Act of 1956, 1957, or 1958” in the first sentence and by inserting the following new sentence after the second sentence: “Until June 30, 1958, funds used for the purposes of this Act shall be so used in accordance with the provisions of this Act as in effect prior to the date of enactment of the Mutual Security Act of 1958.” Savings clause. 71 Stat. 365. 22 USC 1768.

(h) Amend section 544, which relates to amendments to other laws, by striking out subsections (b) and (c) (which deletions shall not be deemed to affect amendments contained in such subsections to Acts other than the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended). 22 USC 1442.

(i) Amend section 545, which relates to definitions, as follows: 70 Stat. 585.

(1) In subsection (j), insert “the Development Loan Fund and” after “refer to” and strike out “title II.” 22 USC 1751.

(2) In subsection (k), insert “the Board of Directors of the Development Loan Fund and” after “refer to” and strike out “title II.”

(l) Section 104 of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954 (Public Law 480, Eighty-third Congress; 7 U. S. C. 1704), as amended, is further amended by adding after paragraph (j) the following new paragraph:

"(k) To collect, collate, translate, abstract, and disseminate scientific and technological information and to conduct and support scientific activities overseas including programs and projects of scientific cooperation between the United States and other countries such as coordinated research against diseases common to all of mankind or unique to individual regions of the globe, but no foreign currencies shall be used for the purposes of this subsection (k) unless specific appropriations be made therefor."

62 Stat. 441.

(m) The Act of June 14, 1948, as amended (22 U. S. C. 290) authorizing participation in the World Health Organization, is amended by adding the following new section 6:

"SEC. 6. The Congress of the United States, recognizing that the diseases of mankind, because of their widespread prevalence, debilitating effects, and heavy toll in human life, constitute a major deterrent to the efforts of many peoples to develop their economic resources and productive capacities, and to improve their living conditions, declares it to be the policy of the United States to continue and strengthen mutual efforts among the nations for research against diseases such as heart disease and cancer. In furtherance of this policy, the Congress invites the World Health Organization to initiate studies looking toward the strengthening of research and related programs against these and other diseases common to mankind or unique to individual regions of the globe."

COOPERATION IN WESTERN HEMISPHERE

SEC. 503. It is the sense of the Congress that, in view of the friendly relationships and mutual interests which exist between the United States and the other nations of the Western Hemisphere, the President should, pursuant to the provisions of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, 68 Stat. 832, as amended, and other applicable legislation, seek to strengthen cooperation in the Western Hemisphere to the maximum extent by encouraging joint programs of technical and economic development. 22 USC 1751 note.

Report to Congress.

Sec. 105. Except for the appropriations entitled "President's special authority and contingency fund" and "Development Loan Fund", not more than 20 per centum of any appropriation item made available by this title shall be obligated and/or reserved during the last month of availability.

Restriction.

Sec. 106. The appropriations and authority with respect thereto in this Act shall be available from July 1, 1959, for the purposes provided in such appropriations and authority. All obligations incurred during the period between June 30, 1959, and the date of enactment of this Act in anticipation of such appropriations and authority are hereby ratified and confirmed if in accordance with the terms hereof.

Availability of funds and authority.

Sec. 107. None of the funds provided by this title nor any of the counterpart funds generated as a result of assistance under this title or any prior Act shall be used to pay pensions, annuities, retirement pay or adjusted service compensation for any persons heretofore or hereafter serving in the armed forces of any recipient country.

Pensions, annuities, etc.
Restriction.

Sec. 108. None of the funds herein appropriated shall be used to carry out the provisions of Section 205 (1) of the Mutual Security Act of 1959.

Ante, p. 250.

Sec. 109. None of the funds herein appropriated shall be used to carry out the provisions of Section 401 (b) of the Mutual Security Act of 1959.

Ante, p. 252.

Sec. 110. None of the funds herein appropriated shall be used to carry out the provisions of Section 501 of the Mutual Security Act of 1959.

Ante, p. 255.

Sec. 111. (a) Within sixty days following the date of enactment of this Act, the President shall transmit to the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives a report containing a full and complete revision of the data presented to such committees in justification of appropriations requested for the Mutual Security program for the fiscal year 1960, showing any changes in such program approved subsequent to such presentation, including changes necessary to reflect actual appropriations for the program.

Presidential reports to Congress.

(b) Within thirty days following the approval of any change in the Mutual Security program for the fiscal year 1960, which will result in furnishing assistance of a kind, for a purpose, in an area, or in an amount, different from that described in the report transmitted under subsection (a), and which involves $1,000,000 or more, or 5 per centum of the amount appropriated under any paragraph of this title, whichever is the lesser, the President shall transmit to the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives a full and complete report of such change and the reasons therefor.

73 STAT. 719.
73 STAT. 720.

(c) This section shall not apply to programs authorized by section 451 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended.

Nonapplicability.
68 Stat. 843.
22 USC 1951.

(d) None of the funds herein appropriated shall be used to carry out any provision of chapter II, III, or IV of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, in any country, or with respect to any project or activity, after the expiration of the thirty-five day period which begins on the date the General Accounting Office or any committee of the Congress, or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof, charged with considering legislation or appropriations for, or report to Congress.

Presidential determination.

SEC. 112. The Congress hereby reiterates its opposition to the seating in the United Nations of the Communist China regime as the representative of China, and it is hereby declared to be the continuing sense of the Congress that the Communist regime in China has not demonstrated its willingness to fulfill the obligations contained in the Charter of the United Nations and should not be recognized to represent China in the United Nations. In the event of the seating of representatives of the Chinese Communist regime in the Security Council or General Assembly of the United Nations, the President is requested to inform the Congress insofar as is compatible with the requirements of national security, of the implications of this action upon the foreign policy of the United States and our foreign relationships, including that created by membership in the United Nations, together with any recommendations which he may have with respect to the matter.

SEC. 113. It is the sense of Congress that any attempt by foreign nations to create distinctions because of their race or religion among American citizens in the granting of personal or commercial access or any other rights otherwise available to United States citizens generally is repugnant to our principles; and in all negotiations between the United States and any foreign state arising as a result of funds appropriated under this Act, these principles shall be applied as the President may determine.
